All parents must provide and original signature here. Realize that children at camp can become injured.

I hereby assume the risk of all injuries to my child and hereby release and discharge Glacier Presbyterian Camp, it's agents, and employees from any and all responsibility which may result from injury to my child. Insurance protection is my responsibility. I give permission for the camp to administer medications as it is deemed necessary for my child. This may include medications sent with my child or non-prescription medication available at camp. In case of emergency, I understand that every effort will be made to contact me. In the event I cannot be reached, I hereby give permission to the physician selected by the camp to hospitalize and secure treatment (including surgery) for my child. I also give my child permission to participate in all activities without limitation, including sledding and, or skiing. I assume financial responsibility for my child's actions which may cause damage to property. If the staff deems it necessary for my child to removed from camp, due to disciplinary or other problems, I will respond promptly by picking up my child.
